Party Follows Up Report of Flares In Amber Valley

A new lead in nine-day old search for the private plane missing in the Alberta north-land developed over the weekend as flares were reported in the Amber Valley district.

Several farmers in the district reported sighting a yellow plane flying low Oct. 14, the day the Cessna Crane went missing.

For several nights flares were reported near north of Amber Valley in the dense muskeg. Amber Valley is 13 miles east of the town of Athabasca.

A 12-man search party from Boyle was reported tracking down the lead in the dense Amber Valley bush today. The searchers, all experienced woodsmen, are depending on their rifles to supply part of their food.

WALKIE-TALKIES

They are also equipped with walkie-talkies.

The party had previously been searching in the Boyle district.

"Flares were seen by farmers three nights in a row," said Douglas Deegren, one of the searchers. "We've followed up a lot of false leads and a lot of searchers were getting pretty discouraged. At times it was like promising, though, and we have high hopes."

Nine planes took off this morning (1) continue the search. No new leads developed and the search craft were detailed over the ground, mostly on the Grande Prairie-Edmonton highway. No is (Continued on Page 2)

S. Koreans Sweep Within Fifty Miles Of Manchuria

SOUL, Korea, Oct. 23 (AP)—South Korean forces swept within 50 miles or more of the Manchurian border today.

Shattered remnants of the North Korean army were fleeing frantically toward the mountain triangle north of Kanggye. It was there that the Communist chieftain, Kim Il Sung, carried out his guerrilla war against the Japanese before Russian occupation forces installed him as premier of North Korea after the Second World War.

Kanggye is about 30 miles from the border in the centre of the peninsula.

Three divisions in drive

Three South Korean divisions were driving for the Manchurian border to finish the four-month war. Observers said the South Koreans, who can make 30 miles a day in forced marches, were capable of reaching the Yalu River on the border sometime Tuesday.

(Gen. MacArthur's headquarters in Tokyo was non-committal. A spokesman said only that the army "had several estimates of when Allied troops were expected to reach the Manchurian border.")

Vishinsky declared Russia's post-war policy is based on the "inevitable peaceful coexistence of the capitalist and socialist systems for a long long time."

He spoke in support of a Russian resolution for "the strengthening of peace"—a document based on the Communist-sponsored Stockholm appeal.

A United States army intelligence officer took up "no real organized resistance in the last 14 hours."

As the Allied tide rolled northward, the bug of Red Korea propaganda went on to say that 120,000 United Nations forces captured 20,000 North Korean troops in the last 24 hours.

Will Prepare Brigade's Way

OTTAWA, Oct. 23 (CP)—The advance party of 345 officers and men of Canada's special United Nations brigade, which sailed Saturday from the west coast in a U.S. transport, is going direct to Korea, defence headquarters announced today.

Headquarters said that this advance "working party" would "prepare the way for the special force should any part of it later be sent to Korea."

The headquarters announcement quoted defence minister Claxton as reiterating that the destination of the fighting brigade of 9,000-old men has not yet been decided.

"No Clinton, who is in Montreal today, was quoted as saying:

"The force was offered to the United Nations for combat service in Korea and until information received from the United Nations makes it clear that it is not needed in Korea, it is not possible to decide that all or part of the force shall not go there."

"The government from day to day has been waiting for the information which will enable it to make its decision."

In regard to absenteeism from the special force—placed at 103 a week ago—Mr. Claxton was quoted as saying "by far the greatest number had oversteered their forward-look on completion of basic training."

NEED NOT PASSED

"Some of them may have mistakenly felt that their services are no longer needed now that the fight is nearly over in Korea. Termination of his training in Korea will neither terminate the need for the force nor the purpose for which it was raised—to be ready to take action on behalf of Canada under the United Nations Charter."

The statement did not contain any new figures on special force absenteeism.

DEALING WITH THE EVENTUAL

Dealing further with the eventual destination of the force, the statement said the minister referred to a statement Oct. 8 by Prime Minister St. Laurent in which the prime minister said: "It may be that circumstances will make it expedient to employ this special force in some other area, and it is circumstances such as a course seen advisable in the interest of increasing the non-severity of ourselves and of our allies, the government will not hesitate to recommend to parliament that this force be employed elsewhere."

"That might well mean its employment in Europe if that is what best fits into the joint plans when these joint plans have taken definite shape," he said.

Alberta May Seek Tax Deal Kickback

Tax Fields Transferred To Ottawa Said 'More Valuable'

Possibility that Alberta will seek substantial increases in funds received from the federal government under the tax transfer agreement was indicated today by Premier Manning.

Under the agreement of 1947, the Alberta government vacated the taxation fields of income tax, corporation tax and excise duties in consideration of cash payments made by the federal government.

A minimum annual payment of $14,237,862 was specified as the federal authorities' payment for the special tax concessions with the increase allowed as Alberta's population increased. This agreement has now been in effect since April 1, 1947 and will expire March 31, 1952.

MORE VALUABLE "The fields of taxation which we transferred to the federal government are very much more valuable now than they were at the time of the agreement," Mr. Manning commented today.

He suggested that the province should be provided with higher compensation for giving the federal authorities access to the tax fields. Meanwhile, government sources indicate that an overhaul of the tax transfer agreement will be given consideration at the next Dominion-provincial conference slated to open in Ottawa Dec. 4.

Korean Victories Seen As Stop-Gap

Far Eastern Military Views See World War Postponed

TOKYO, Oct. 22.—(AP)—High military circles here say the United Nations victory in Korea has postponed a possible third World War for years.

Thousands Of Starlings Invade Town

BRIDGINGTON, England, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Everybody in this North Sea town of 20,000 was awakened early today by the mass chirping of hundreds of thousands—some even said millions—of starlings.

There were starlings everywhere—under the bed, in the fire place—in the course of an unprecedented migration.

Scientists, somewhat perplexed, assumed the birds came from across the sea, possibly Scandinavia, and they passed here in the course of an unprecedented migration.

Some thought the birds, after battling in from the sea against a steady offshore wind, were near exhaustion.

On the main street there were more birds than there was landing space. Flocks buckled under the weight of resting birds, flowerbeds were flattened, and the air was thick with feathers as they floated for footfalls.

After two hours, as if in response to an order, the flock took wing and birding was nice and quiet again. There were a few stragglers.

Trainmen After Wage Increase

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Oct. 22.—(AP)—The 210,000-member Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen yesterday launched a drive for an across-the-board wage increase of 25 cents an hour.

President W. P. Kennerly said 1,072 delegates to the operating brotherhood's convention gave the go-ahead order to officers to start the wage negotiations with the U.S. railroads.

Two Bodies Found After Two Months

KINGSTON, N.Y., Oct. 22.—(AP)—Deed for more than two months, the embroiled bodies of a 61-year-old welder and a 17-year-old factory girl who vanished Aug. 12 were found near Kingston yesterday.

Sheriff George S. said the couple died in a suicide pact from carbon monoxide poisoning.

They say Russia was surprised by allied intervention in Korea and stunned by the strength returned in less than four months.

Russia is not yet ready to risk an all-out war, these sources said. So they expect the Kremlin carefully to avoid any policy that might threaten to lead to general war—without, however, abandoning its world-wide imperialistic designs.

Communist satellites are expected to continue hacking at long-standing world trouble spots. The current flare-up of the four-year-old campaign in Indo-China is one indication of this.

But the Kremlin may avoid such direct aggression in Korea until it feels ready to take on the allied world.

Before the Korean campaign, many military men here felt Russian policies were leading directly to war. They based many of their plans on that possibility.

BELIEFS FALSE There is no doubt in Tokyo headquarters that Russia started the Korean invasion and master-minded most of it.

The purpose evidently was to win a quick and convincing victory that might make the conquest of other areas easier. It could also have been a test of the allies.

In any case, Kremlin planners are believed to have called in their principal experts on the United States beforehand to learn whether American intervention was likely.

The "experts" apparently agreed that the U.S. would allow Korea to fall.

The North Koreans expected to conquer the entire peninsula in a matter of weeks. American military officials said that without United Nations intervention, the Reds probably would have beaten their time schedule.

In Soviet plans, however, this was probably only a secondary part of the blueprint.

Militarily politically and economically, Korea is a minor goal compared to such prizes as Indo-China or Germany.

The result, however, has made the campaign of major importance, and no military men here believe the allied sacrifices of men and treasure were in vain.

Prince Charles Shy As Sister Christened

LONDON, Oct. 23.—(Reuters)—Thousands of excited Britons cheered and shouted outside Buckingham Palace Saturday as Princess Anne was christened at a quiet family ceremony inside.

Daughter of Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh, the 6-day-old baby was given four names—Anne Elizabeth Alice Louise.

She is third in succession to the throne, coming after her mother and brother, Prince Charles.

In a white Victorian christening robe, the baby lay quietly in her mother's arms as the Archbishop of York, Rev. Cyril F. Garbett, sprinkled the christening water on her forehead.

This authority will be established by the lawful government of Korea, he said.

Rhee coupled this declaration with earlier statements that his government intended to establish authority in North Korea without United Nations or other intervention.

United Nations participation should be limited to advice and observation, he said.

The president admitted that even officials already are going north on the 38th parallel, but he claimed they are not under orders from his government.

He said they are North Koreans in origin and their task is to assist by investigation and interrogation in clearing the area of Communists in preparation for establishment of civil authority.

LEAR 'STALKS'
Lester Lear, Calgary Stampeder's mightiest mind by weight and volume, called for a conference following last Saturday's scuffling on the frozen Metway meadow.

And in 90 minutes the Calgary coach got the following points on his chest:

1. Riley (Rattler) Matheson left Stampede before the season ended because he said he was injured. He would not, however, allow the club doctors to examine him.

This statement was meant to dispel the ugly rumor floating around Calgary to the effect that Matheson tipped the other clubs (particularly Winnipeg) off about Stampede's plans. This would seem to be a ludicrous lie because (a) Matheson rarely played offense this year, (b) Winnipeg studied moves of every game they played, as would gain more from that source than from diagrams played and (c) Stampede were using plays that every team in the league had played against before.

2. Eskimos have the best tackle in the west in Don Durne. Durne, who is also high on the Calgary list, tried to get Durne under contract last spring. Lear said that Durne was not interested. ("You wouldn't be in the play-offs without him and Morris Brown") and Bill Stukus called a good game tonight, missing his running and passing wits.

3. Edmonton lacks a good defense punter, he said, but Bill Briggs has played sound football all year.

4. Football is a great desire game, and every team in the league had greater will-power than Calgary did this year.

5. Stampede aren't considering next year too strenuously yet, but Matheson, Woody Strada (who returned to the U.S. because of a "knee injury") and Earl Aulet and Sugarfoot Anderson are unlikely to be back with Calgary next fall.

6. Lear hoped that Edmonton would win the Western title, but said that "Anno Stukus must live a long time before he'll beat me straight." (Stukus had beaten Lear last year, but only by six games against Stampede this year. They won four of them.)

WINNIEPIASO
Actually, the press conference was closed to Edmonton's reporters for fully 45 minutes, at Lear's request. His reason: The Matheson rumor was a Calgary-made lie and should be cleaned up by Calgary.

Because Winnipeg kept some of its stars on the sidelines, Saturday, the following Regens did not dress: Jack Hartman, Al Bodine, Ken Charlton, Matt Anthony, Bert Iannone, Jimmy Kynes, Mike Cassidy, Max Drum, Tom Springsteen and Johnny (Red) Bell.

This would indicate that each club knew pretty well what the other planned to do. As well as a matter of fact, it seemed the Calgary-Saskatoon game.

STUKUS
Eskimo bluing was good Saturday. Bill Stukus receiving sound pass protection for the most part. Steve Mendra was a Mike Stukus played very defensively, sticking for Bob Patfah, who played very little in the game. Jimmy, who didn't play at all.

The timing on the Edmonton ground attack was a bit better, missing the holes too early. Prather was our wicket.

FAN FARE
Edmonton Oil Kings will play the first of twelve home exhibition games against Western Canada Junior Hockey league teams at the Gardens November 23, taking on Crow's Nest Pats Lions.

The 12-game schedule for the local junior squad was arranged yesterday at a meeting in Calgary with sponsor Jim Christensen and representatives of the WCHL in attendance.

Games will be against the Alberta teams entered in the WCHL, but exhibitions with the two Saskatchewan entrants will be arranged at a later date.

WCHL president Art Potter of the Edmonton Oilers said:

Bomber Display Irks Esk Heads

Eskimo fans and officials are burned up today over that whopping 6-1 decision Regina returned against the Bombers Saturday, as both their reserves.

Majority felt that Winnipeg had taken the game much too lightly, thus allowing Regina to run up a high score to best Eskimos in the 'for' and 'against' totals. As a result, the sudden death semifinal will be played in the Saskatchewan arena next Saturday.

But the majority did not include Coach Anna Stukus, said he "was too busy worrying about Calgary Saturday night and Regina's next Saturday, to be concerned with Winnipeg's display." He said, "I hope to see the backfield together for the first time in weeks."

Stukus' immediate superior, however, thought there was something highly unorthodox in Winnipeg's display. He said, "I hope to see the backfield together for the first time in weeks."

Stumping Eskimos Bow to Calgary 13-7

By Dick Beddoes

MEWATA STADIUM, CALGARY, Oct. 23.—There were several interesting aspects of the football game here between the Stampede and Edmonton Eskimos Saturday night.

But in addition circles the boys were only interested in the result, which favored Calgary by a 13-7 margin.

In losing Eskimos slipped to third place in the final Western Conference standing. In actual points they are deadlocked with Regina, each club having 14.

However, in blasting Winnipeg Bombers 36-1 Saturday afternoon, Regina accumulated a better for-against record than the Eskimos. "Riders will thus be at home for the sudden-death semifinal against Edmonton next Saturday."

8 EDMONTON BULLETIN, Monday, October 23, 1950

CASUAL CHOICES, INC., HAS .860 WEEKEND

The Bulletin's Casual Choices, Inc., was back in business in a big way Saturday. For The Brain, who selects the weekly football winners, B.C. called six right out of seven, for an .860 batting average.

Actually, he was closer than that, the Toronto Argo-Ottawa Rough Rider game winding up in a 21-21 tie. The B.C. called Ottawa to win.

The B.C. record for the season now stands at 47 for 72, 653 winning average. That isn't terrific, but it's better than the Eskimos, who finished with seven for 14, a .500 record.

Riders Triumph 36-1 In Farical Contest

WINNIPEG, Oct. 23.—(CP)—Saskatchewan Roughriders walloped Winnipeg Blue Bombers, 36-1, in a Western Football Union game here Saturday afternoon to move into a second-place tie with Edmonton Eskimos in the final Western Conference standing.

However, Riders' one-sided triumph, coupled with Kala's 13-7 defeat at Calgary Saturday night—first game of the regular schedule—gave the Saskatchewan club a better for-against average than their Alberta rivals.

Now, the sudden-death semifinal between Riders and Eskimos for the right to meet the league-winning Bombers will be played at Regina's Taylor Field next Saturday.

A paid attendance of 7,200 fans saw Bombers go down to their first defeat at home, but the majority of the crowd was there to see the game.

Before the game got under way, a minute's silence was held in memory of Jack Bell, Saskatchewan's first player to die in a football game at Toronto a week ago.

President Ralph Milner of Bombers also announced a fund had been started for aiding Bell's widowed mother.

Bill Samson, former Bomber fullback, scored two touchdowns for Riders in the second quarter, both converted by Roy Wright. Nelson Green, last year with Ottawa Rough Riders, went over for two majors in the third quarter. Wright converted one and Greene booted a single to reach the 24.

Those Grey Cup Hopes

Monday mumbblings... and whatever became of Edmonton's Grey Cup hopes?

Bombers played Santa Claus, Riders hung tough. Stampede chased Eskimos into the rough.

Western Conference Football schedule wound up on a come one come Saturday. Despite the fact that second place at stake, upwards of 20 of the top stars of the four-team circuit failed to climb into their working clothes.

Excuses for non-appearance ranged all the way from attacks of hampis to being bogged down legitimately with a badly bruised leg, as was the case with Winnipeg's Buddy Lindsey, or a crooked knee, the complaint of Ed's Tiny Berry.

Here in Edmonton, while Eskimos were being cold-docked by Stampede, many were the questions asked re the presence of starry end Morris Bailey in far off Fort Worth at a time like this. Certainly it couldn't be helped. But this doesn't answer it for $3.90 fans who are looking for a winner.

That one night stand in Regina next Saturday looms as mighty important about now.

Add happy-birthday-dept.: Boston Red Sox infielder Vern Stephens, 30 today. Anna Stukus, coach of the slump-ridden Edmonton Eskimos, 36 Wednesday; Jim Ryan, playing manager Cal's Dodgers, Big Four Baseball game Klings, 26 (surprise) Thursday; Dave Butler, ex-SAC Junior, 22 Thursday.

Ralph Kiner, baseball's No. 1 home run driver of Pittsburgh Pirates, 28 Friday; 'Lefty' Joe (The forgotten Man) Ryan, New York Yankees, 33 Sunday. Congratulations, and all the best of the year to the comes too late in the case of Mr. Stukus) ever get mixed up with a team that falls as flat on its face as these Eskimos.

Prediction: anytime now 'Butch' McDonald, Calgary Stampede hockey coach, will win the night Dunc Grant back to left wing where he always has played and where he belongs. The onetime WHL scoring king will never make a centre forward or at least 10 years ago. Paddy Denny, Calgary, as a regular fellow as ever made it to Renfrew Park with a touring major league party (he was here in 1947), is on the baseball chutes. The other day he got the ticket from Seattle, of the Pacific Coast League.

Ted (The Coast) Christy still rates with this bureau as the best copy ever to come this way on the raucous circuit. Still active in the Los Angeles area, Christy showed on the Calgary Herald's lead column last week as Al (Mr.) Murder Mills, otherwise 'Lord Mills'.

Add what's-in-a-name dept.: Ring magazine re-buys as Al Marotti... as we know the name hereabouts as Al Marotti.

The bowler is off to Montreal Canadiens' goodwill man Ken Reardon for his utterances in Fort William a day or two back. Reardon, whose formal schooling was checked off when he finished grade school at the age of young fellows contemplating a pro hockey career, that "the worst thing a kid can do is quit school at 16 years of age to play hockey." There's a mouthful of truth in that one, especially if the Montreal organization will practice what their ambassador at large preaches.

Personal opinion: Anna Stukus, who has been preaching a boy-are-tired-policy for several weeks, should adopt a get-tough policy from now until that momentous game against Roughriders in Regina next Saturday.

As we understand it, the Eskimos are a high priced football team, one that should start paying its way again anytime now. No athletic reverse in a long time (not even Fry's whopping fold-up in the hockey playoffs last spring) has so irked local fans as that failure in the clutch at Calgary Saturday night. It's getting to be an event, almost, when the Stukusmen score a touchdown, which makes one wonder what became of the highly touted, "charging line" with which Eds started the season.

In case there's any inclination to rest on the oars cause Eskimos have won seven games, it might be best to remember that the team has been in the playoffs for the past three years. The Bombers undeniably are shooting for the works—Blue Grey cup.

The Defenceman Jack Evans, once of Lethbridge Maple Leafs and the best young rearguard to pop up in the WHL since it revived in 1945, is with the Chechnov's cooled of Mohawks.

Mustangs Capture Junior Grid Crown

CALGARY, Oct. 23.—(CP)—The pass-crazy Calgary Mustangs yesterday completed Alberta Junior Football's 1960 Cinderella story, riding high on a brilliant aerial attack to a stunning 10-1 triumph over Calgary Bronco and the provincial champion.

Second quarter—Mustangs, rough Mustangs, who finished off the Mustangs in a four-team loop, wiped out their 11-0 loss in the first game of the season.

Individual honors went to a pair of Mustangs, quarterback Danny McLaughlin, who finished the 1-2 point punch that knocked the Mustangs out from under the powerful Bronco. But just when the dead-end game looked like they were headed for overtime.

Summary: First quarter—Mustangs, 10-0; second quarter—Mustangs, 10-0.

Tip Tops: Oct. 23.—(CP)—Toronto Toros captured the Senior open Toronto Amateur softball "A" championship, defeating 19-2 in the second game of a total-point series.

Alouettes Tied For Second In Hectic Big Four Race

MONTREAL, Oct. 23.—

(CP) Montreal Alouettes edged Hamilton Tiger Cats 16-13, while Ottawa Roughriders and Toronto Argonauts battled to a 21-21 tie in week-end games which tightened up the Big Four football race.

Saturday's standard result at Ottawa and yesterday's hard-fought Montreal victory here left Argos in front with 11 points. Hamilton and Montreal each have 10 and Ottawa has nine.

LONG FIELD GOAL
A booming 47-yard field goal by Nick Scallone gave Alouettes their margin in their Big Four victory over Hamilton.

Virgil Wagner and Tommy Monaghan accounted for the Montreal touchdowns and a drive in the opening quarter. Montreal's other point came in the second period on Scallone's kick, which McDougal was caught.

Going into the fourth quarter at Ottawa Saturday, Rough Riders had it all their own way. Argos had it was 21-9 in their favor.

Then Argos began to roll up the field. A third-down gamble by quarter-back Al DeSantis gave Red Sox the touchdown pass. Quarter-back Turner then set up a second Toronto touchdown.

LOCK KICK
Later the red-charming Toronto broke through and John Knebel, a Turner kick in the air. He grabbed the loose ball as it came down, and crossed the line unopposed.

Argos opened the scoring with a field goal by Nick Scallone, followed by a touchdown by Bill Webster. The Alouettes then set up the winning field goal.

Ottawa ended the game with a field goal by Nick Scallone, followed by a touchdown by Bill Webster. The Alouettes then set up the winning field goal.

Once Mighty Irish Get Losing Habit

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(CP)—Once-mighty Notre Dame lost its second game of the season Saturday, bowing to Boston College 20-7, as upsets of top-ranked teams again jarred the U.S. college grid front.

Twice-beaten UCLA handed Boston College its first loss in the season, 27-17, at Los Angeles. Stanford was ranked sixth in last week's Associated Press poll.

Marquette, ranked eighth, fell behind Boston College in the second quarter. The Irish led 10-0 at halftime, but Boston College scored twice in the second half to win 20-7.

Underdog Florida stunned Vanderbilt 37-17 to spoil the Commodores' perfect record. Otherwise, gridiron activities followed form, with Army and Oklahoma extending football's current longest unbeaten streak at the expense of weak opponents.

Owen Sound Wins Lacrosse Crown
TORONTO, Oct. 23.—(CP)—Owen Sound Crocoderos smothered Newmarket 15-7 here yesterday to win the Canadian senior lacrosse championship.

Before a crowd of 6,500, largest of the seven-game series, the eastern champions came from behind with a third quarter outburst that smothered the New Westminsters' defense.

Playing coach Doug Gillespie sparked Crocoderos to the first National title won by Owen Sound since the Junior Grey Cup look the Memorial cup in the mid 1930s.

Doug Gillespie fired three goals. Brother Grant Gillespie, Arnold (Gus) Smith and Harry Kasarian each notched one for the Crocoderos. Bill Allan, Russ Slater, Jack Mason, Marlowe Woods, McWhirter and Don Campbell each got one.

Jack Proctor and Jack Northrup scored two apiece for New Westminsters. Other Adams snipers were Bob Brown, Stan Tyson and Red Joyce.

Adams, fighting to retain for the second time, was held by the west team by Vancouver Burrards and also to be the first western team in 25 years to win in the east. Started off with a rush and led 6-3 at the end of the first quarter.

Uncle Wiggly's Bedtime Story

Uncle Wiggly was hopping through the woods one day not far from his hollow stump bungalow. With Uncle Wiggly was his country cousin from Green Tree Valley. The two rabbit gentlemen were talking about the weather and things like that. The wind was blowing gently in the trees and many leaves were falling, for it was the fall of the year.

"It is time I went home," said the country rabbit. "I have been away long enough."

"Well, Cousin Jumper," said Uncle Wiggly as he twinkled his pink nose again. "You came here to visit me, so that you could have adventures, didn't you?"

"Yes, Cousin Wiggly. I did. I never could seem to find adventures here. I lived in Green Tree Valley, but here in Woodland, around your hollow stump bungalow, there have been lots of adventures."

Suddenly a voice croaked: "GEE! UGH! GIB! OOH!"

"That was my pet frog, Fuggo. I have him here in this basket. I am taking him back home to show to my wife."

"GEE! OOH! UMPITY ZOO! UNG!" croaked the frog in the basket which Cousin Jumper was carrying on his left paw. That was Jumper's way of saying that he hoped Cousin Wiggly's wife would be a kind lady rabbit to him.

"Oh, she will be very kind to you," said Cousin Jumper. "You need not worry about that, Juggo," croaked the big green frog in the basket and that meant "Thank you" in frog talk.

Uncle Wiggly and his Cousin Jumper reached a place in the woods where one path went one way and another path went the other way.

"I will take the path that goes the other way," said Cousin Jumper. "I will soon be home in Green Tree Valley. You have come far enough with me, Cousin Wiggly. Thank you for your company. You had better hop back home to your bungalow and get the children ready for school."

"Yes, I will do that," said Uncle Wiggly. "Goodbye, Cousin Jumper and give my love to your wife."

"Goodbye, Cousin Wiggly," answered the country rabbit. "And give my love to your wife. Cousin Jumper hopped along the other path that led to his home and Uncle Wiggly turned back to go to his bungalow.

All of a sudden Uncle Wiggly heard a noise. A little distance away he saw Johnnie Bushytail, the reddest rabbit who dug a hole in the ground.

"I will hop over and help Johnnie," said Uncle Wiggly. So he hopped over. What happened next I will tell you tomorrow if the reddest rabbit will show the goldfish how to play tennis with a popcorn ball and a broomstick.

Human Touch Key To New Peace Bid

Big Factor Will Be Underfed Peoples Of Asia And Africa

By NOEL MOSTERT
Exclusive to The Bulletin

TORONTO, Oct. 23.—(BUP)—Dr. Ralph Bunche, director-general of the United Nations trusteeship commission, said today the UN would cornerstone a new bid for world peace by using "the human touch."

The underprivileged, suppressed and oppressed peoples of these areas are the biggest factor in our hopes for world peace," he said.

The UN plans will start in Korea with the holding of free elections north of the 38th parallel. "These elections won't be easy. We are geared to do the spade-work for them immediately. I wouldn't even hazard a guess as to when the elections will be held, but I think they can—and must—be done," the stoic Negro, 1950 winner of the Nobel Peace prize, told the British Eighth Army's triumphal victory against German Adolf Korp.

Mr. Bunche passed through Toronto on his way back to Lake Success after receiving an honorary law degree at the University of Western Ontario. He was the first Negro to receive such an honor in Canada.

WEEKS AND BREAD
"We in the United States and Canada may calculate security in terms of peace and freedom and stability in the years to come. But such peoples as those in Asia who have known only suppression, want and misery for centuries, calculate it in terms of weeks and bread," he said.

"Let us hope that out of Korea the western democracies have begun to learn an elemental lesson in their relations with the peoples of Asia and Africa. Ideals and theories could not be served as a solution to the problems of regions where people were eminently materialistic," Bunche said. "It is the human touch that these people need. There is nothing wrong with the world which good human relations could not remedy."

The UN would have to feed and nourish millions as part of this program to bring new hope to backward peoples.

"The United Nations by no means has sufficient funds to do this," he said. "It has to be done tough. But I am hopeful that the work will be carried through unimpeded because there is a growing realization that the money is needed," he said.

GET AT ROOTS
Bunche, who successfully mediated the Arab-Jewish dispute in Palestine, said that only by removing potential danger spots by banishment of discontent, and thus getting at the roots of war, can the UN save the peace.

"The United Nations has more prestige than it ever had before," he said, "and we have real hope for the emergence of both Africa and Asia as great stable and secure regions. It will take tremendous effort to do this."

He said that one of the most difficult tasks ahead would be to "heal the wounds" between North and South Korea.

"Those wounds are deep, created by the artificial barrier of the 38th parallel, but we will have to face up to them as realistically as possible," Bunche said.

He cited the UN's work in Libya as something that could re-assure oriental and underprivileged territories everywhere that that they had international understanding.

"Libya should be independent by Jan. 1, 1952," he said. "A provisional government will be set up next spring to pave the way for a later, independent administration. Libya should be a source of comfort to all the African peoples."

Workers Executed
TAIPEI, Formosa, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Five railroad workers were executed in Taipei Saturday and 20 other persons were each sentenced to 15 years imprisonment on charges of conspiring to overthrow the Nationalist government.

DEAD HONORED AT ALAMEIN

AL ALAMEIN, Egypt, Oct. 23.—(Reuters)—A cloud of 200,000 poppies drifted down from the sky today to fall among 7,000 white crosses marking the graves of Empire troops in the battle of El Alamein eight years ago. Two Lincoln bombers dropped the poppies in commemoration of the battle, which was the turning point in the British Eighth Army's triumphal victory against German Adolf Korp.

Montreal Crowds Besiege Famous Five At Station

MONTREAL, Oct. 23.—(CP)—Canada's famous five—the Dionne quintuplets—arrived here from New York last night and played a hectic two-hour game of hide-and-seek with about 5,000 Montrealers. The quintos stopped off at Windsor station for a two-hour visit with Roman Catholic Archbishop Paul Bruchési before heading for their home in a vast plan for a train en route home.

More than 1,000 people filled the courtyard of the station and more than 4,000 jammed the entrance. The quintos, accompanied by their father, Oliva Dionne, alighted from their train at the station and were escorted to a special railway car. Police then broke the police barrier and the game was on.

The crowd outside the station rushed inside because the quintos were being escorted from their home. Police searched them out and a moment to the crowd. He was parking lot. Half an hour later they met the Vancouver and Quebec Archbishops. He gave them a small amount of money to turn their gifts of gold medallions from Italy. The quintos were escorted to the station and then to the train. The group left for Ottawa with out commotion.

Employment Better Now Than '49, Claims Gregg

OTTAWA, Oct. 23.—(CP)—Canada's employment conditions last September were far better than in September, 1949, Labor Minister Gregg said today.

In his monthly statement on the employment situation, he said that at Sept. 23 there were 133,300 registrations for employment on hand in National Employment Office.

The figure was 18,500 lower than the total at the first of the month and 10,000 below the total at the end of September, 1949.

Labor demand continued to increase throughout the month, particularly in the forest industries and in manufacturing, said Mr. Gregg.

These new job openings occur at a time of great labor requirements in agriculture and construction," said Mr. Gregg.

"This increase in labor demand in manufacturing is the result of the accelerated defense program, at a time when production of automobiles, refrigerators and other consumer durables with a

H-Bomb Expert Reported In Soviet

Naturalized British Citizen Skipped While On Holiday

ROME, Oct. 23.—(AP)—The Italian atomic scientist, Dr. Bruno Pontecorvo, now a British citizen, sailed on a Russian ship from Finland for Leningrad Sept. 2, the Stockholm correspondent of U-Tempo reported today.

Soviet Bloc Urges Unity For Germany

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Oct. 23.—(AP)—A group of Communist countries headed by Russia called on the Big Three western powers, the United States, Great Britain and France, to join Russia in a four-point plan for establishment of a democratic, peace-loving, all-German sovereign government.

A 2,000-word statement set forth the ideas adopted at a two-day conference of V. M. Molotov, Soviet deputy prime minister, and the foreign ministers of seven Soviet-allied states at the Casablanca conference in Algiers.

Called for:
1. A proclamation by Russia, Britain, France and the United States that they will not allow renegades of Germany and her being dragged into any aggressive plans.

They would also pledge to "carry out the 1945 Potsdam agreement on stabilizing conditions for creation of a unified, peace-loving, all-German sovereign government."

2. Removal of all hindrances in the road of development of a peaceful German economy. The rehabilitation of German war potential was termed "undesirable."

3. "The undelayed conclusion of a peace treaty with Germany," creation of a unified German state and withdrawal of all occupation forces a year after the signing of the treaty.

4. "Creation of an all-German constitutional council on the basis of a balanced representation of western and eastern Germany, which should prepare for establishment of an interim democratic, peace-loving, all-German sovereign government."

The Russian, American, British and French governments, the communists said, should be invited to consult "concerning the content of the peace treaty" until the all-German government should be set up.

JACOBY ON Canasta

By Oswald Jacoby

Mrs. H. L. McGonagall of Memphis, Tennessee, writes as follows:

"As one of the many Canasta fans, I am very interested in your articles in the newspapers. I know that you are unable to answer all the questions we write to ask your advice, but if possible, would you please write an article as to whether the black three can be milled with a wild card on the last play."

"It is clear that three threes can be milled together, but the question has arisen as to whether two threes can be made into a meld with one wild card on the very last play. We will appreciate it very much if you can find a space to write about this."

I have had several letters on the subject of black threes, and will answer Mrs. McGonagall's question and the others by quoting and explaining Law 20 of the Official Laws of Canasta. The law reads:

"When a player discards a black three, the next player may not take the discard pile at that time, but subsequent plays are not affected."

"A player may meld two black threes and a wild card, three black threes, or four black threes at his hand; and 2. Only one melding out at a time."

"Comment: A player may not meld a meld of four black threes and three wild cards."

The first paragraph answers one frequent question. The discard of a black three does not freeze the discard pile. It merely stops the next player from taking it at that time.

The second paragraph answers Mrs. McGonagall's question. It is a meld of three black threes and a wild card. It also answers another question. It is not permissible to make a canasta of four black threes and three wild cards.

Finally, there is nothing in this law that changes the requirements for melding melds because a player is melding black threes. He may have a canasta (either made then or previously) and he still is privileged to discard or not discard in which he melds out.

Edson Man On Trial For Counselling Arson

Charged with "counselling" a neighbor to burn down his house so he could collect the insurance money, Kost Szentaki, 61, of Edson went on trial in Supreme Court today.

Szentaki is also charged with having first tried to burn the house down himself, then, after his wife and the neighbor's efforts were unsuccessful, with "counselling" another neighbor to perform the service.

Prosecutor J. W. K. Shortreed tried to have the three counts heard together, arguing that the same evidence should apply for each, but defence counsel R. D. White successfully argued that the evidence of one count might influence the jury in coming to its decision on one of the other counts.

Justice W. G. Lightfoot ordered each charge to be heard separately.

According to Mr. Shortreed, in his outline of the second charge alleged to have occurred at 7:15 p.m. last, Szentaki approached Raymond Dickson with the offer of a job.

"You will burn my house down for $100 as I need the $100 insurance," Mr. Shortreed quoted the accused as saying.

Szentaki then was said to have showed Dickson how to carry out the arson and himself laid some coal oil by the side of the house according to Mr. Shortreed.

"Comment: A player may not meld a meld of four black threes and three wild cards."

The first paragraph answers one frequent question. The discard of a black three does not freeze the discard pile. It merely stops the next player from taking it at that time.
